

Description:

Gough Econ has the ability to provide an entire material handling system between production and manufacturing. From bucket elevators to storage conveying systems they can move your product from A to B, efficiently and economically. Gough Econ storage conveyors are part of that product portfolio. The storage conveyors regulate product flow and absorb surges. Each system can be designed from a basic storage conveyor to a complete system including infeed conveyors, lowerator/spreaders, controls, etc.
